

For Immediate Release

ICASA APPROVAL OF E-BAND RADIO SYSTEM

July, 2010 (Harvard, MA) – Renaissance Electronics Corporation/HXI has recently received word that HXI's E-Band Gigalink system has received (ICASA) Independent Communications Authority of South Africa operational approval certification to deploy in South Africa. This E-Band Radio system is used in wireless back haul applications. High Performance 1.25Gbps E-Band Radio Link with a Frequency Range of 71-76GHz, HXI has partnered with a premiere wireless products and services provider, they offer a full portfolio of telecommunications products and services that are cost effective, fast to deploy, flexible, upgradable, and re-deployable. HXI Gigalink E-Band systems supplement these core offerings by expanding true capacity and operational range.

Renaissance Electronics/HXI is excited to have this high quality product certified for use in Africa and if you would like more info please call 978-521-7300 ext. 7304 or check www.hxi.com for details.

For more information about this product, contact HXI Sales and Product Support:
978-521-7300, ext. 7304, sales@hxi.com or online at www.hxi.com

HXI, LLC is a wholly-owned subsidiary of Renaissance Electronics Corporation